

Marval Legal Forecast 2023

We invite you to a unique forum in Argentina, where national and international experts will share their experiences and knowledge in view of the upcoming year.

MARVAL LEGAL FORECAST 2023

We invite you to the Marval Legal Forecast 2023, the first legal forum in Argentina bringing together local and international leaders and experts from different sectors, to discuss the main trends, projections, and challenges of the law industry and the business context for the upcoming year.

The year 2023 presents great opportunities. To prepare for them, we will share views on the economic, political, and legal contexts, through the authorized voices of industry leaders. This will be a prestigious conference analyzing the present and future of legal matters.

Being an open and collaborative forum, it means to promote interaction among high-level expert colleagues. This makes it a must for legal and business leaders, C-Levels, and opinion makers.

When?

November 17, from 8.30 am to 06.00 pm (GMT- 3)

Venue

Leandro N. Alem 882, Buenos Aires, Argentina

For in-person participants, the conference will include coffee spaces for interaction and an exclusive networking lunch for on-site guests.

The conference will be held on-site prior confirmation, and will be broadcasted online simultaneously for those who register. Openings for on-site attendance are special and limited. Registration is free of charge in all cases.
